A Lucky Girl.

A young lady of this city was the recipient of very welcome news this morning, Miss Edith Feming, a step daughter of J. R. Park, was intorused by a telegraphic dispatch that there was the sum of $10,000, subject to be check, on deposit at the First National Bank of Engage.

It appears that an uncle of Miss Fleming's, who resides in the fumous Randsburg mining district, isagest mine in Miss Flemin's mane seminassines, By some changs the mine in Miss Figure's name som-time since. By some chance the Kenyon mine, as it was named, turned out to be valuable property, and the nucle sold it for $10,000 which he re
